
CLOUD NO. 9
HERE, ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE
SAUVIGNON BLANC
MARLBOROUGH NEW ZEALAND

Cloud No.9

2014 Sauvignon Blanc
Marlborough, New Zealand

TECHNICAL DETAILS

Growing Region: Wairau
Grape Variety: Sauvignon Blanc 95%, Gruner Veltliner 5%
Alcohol: 12.5%
pH: 3.13
Acidity: 7.4 g/l
Residual Sugar: 4.3 g/l
Maturation: Steel

TASTING NOTES

Aroma: Fresh grapefruit, lime and lemon peel with cut grass characters on the nose.

Palate: Elegant, a pure expression synonymous with Marlborough, balanced refreshing acidity and great length – it just has a great line.

Food match: Oysters, John Dory, flathead, goats cheese with sourdough and balsamic vinegar. Perfect to share with friends on its own.

Maturation: Steel

HERE, ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE

If you have travelled to Marlborough you know it is a special place. It's all blue skies with clean and green fields and clear running streams – here, anything is possible. Just like the Cloud No.9 girl – the magic of Marlborough comes from its purity. You can feel the strong connection that exists between the land and its people. The essence of the valley lifts you to great heights and the resulting wines are an expression of its purity, freshness and style.

Christian Butler
Founder